

About the Author

A Sermon by Arthur Simon, Epiphany 2, 2003, Emmanuel, Catonsville, John 1:43-57.

Arthur Simon, founder of Bread for the World and an LCMS minister, authored How Much Is Enough? (Grand Rapids: Baker Books, 2003), available from booksellers, including barnesandnoble.com, amazon.com, and borders.com. The Epiphany 2, 2003 Sermon by Arthur Simon includes a challenge "to set aside one percent of your total income, above and beyond what you are already giving, for world missions." [empty tomb note: If members of historically Christian churches in the United States were to increase giving for world missions by one percent of our total income, at least an additional $12 billion would be available for world missions.]
